Anne Kalb visited to share the school's discipline plan based on positive-behavioral supports. Jody Petter, parent, shared the survey the school she works at in Bloomington sends to families each year and suggested doing something similar at GH. She emphasized the importance of having someone ask parents at conferences if they could complete the survey right then to increase response rate. Scott asked Jenica to share that we did survey our parents last fall. Jenica will tell Scott about what Jody shared with us. Jenica will look for a parent of a younger student to take on Amazon and GiveMN.org in the fall. For now, the passwords will be given to Jenica.
Updates: (As needed) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Volunteer Coordinators Report • Parent Leader Update • Husky Hustle Update • Carnival Update • School Supply Update • Square 1 Art Update • Script Cards Update 	Janelle/Dana Lori H. Janelle/Kari Jenny Ambuja Jenica Jenica	Tiffany Field was the parent volunteer of the month. Volunteer coordinators are working on volunteers for the picnic the last day of school and on editing the volunteer form for parents to complete at fall reading assessments. Lori shared Parent Leader minutes which discussed a program used at another district school to provide food to families in need. The district is looking to expand this program to other elementaries. We are in need of a Parent Leader to represent Glacier Hills at meetings during the day once per month with the superintendent next year. Husky Hustle preparations are underway. If the school raises $30,000, there will be an all-school bonfire on the Friday night following the race. Classroom incentives will also be offered to earn the right to dress the principal for the race and eat lunch with him. The carnival is planned to occur again next April. School supplies can still be ordered online through June 12 th . Scott will be looking for 2-4 parents to serve on a committee in support of the bond referendum in the fall.
